Who We Are

Founded by our visionaries Eric and Jill, our brand has grown from a humble family operation into a beacon of excellence and tradition in the cannabis community.

As a multigenerational family of farmers, we are dedicated to refining the cultivation process, ensuring each plant receives the utmost care and attention.

MOST WANTED CANNABIS REPRESENTS
A LEGACY OF MORE THAN FIVE
DECADES IN THE ART & SCIENCE OF CANNABIS CULTIVATION.

MOST WANTED BRAND BOOK

Our Heritage

With family roots dating back to 1973 and amidst the verdant hills of Humboldt County, Eric and Jill planted seeds in 1994 that would become a pioneering enterprise in cannabis cultivation.

Over the years, their commitment to quality and sustainability attracted a tight-knit group of farmers and experts, each bringing their unique skills and passion to our collective endeavor.

Together, we have weathered the challenges posed by the shifting legal and social landscapes of cannabis, always staying true to our roots and our commitment to the community.
